After work tickling got his name from the way things happened in the way of shooting this series.

i was on my way from work one day and i got a call from hadar.

Hadar told me that she have a new girl at work and that in one of their breaks she told her about our tickling story.

hadar told me that she want me to tray and talk with her friend and see if i can get her in to tickling.

after a few minutes of talking we scheduled a date !

hadar came with her friend and the rest can be see in our clips.

hadar friend is very very very very ticklish.

we couldn't even touch her without making her jump around.

she is extremely ticklish all over her body !
